

DZUL KARNAIN ABDULLAH

BACKGROUND

He has been interested in photography since he was 7 years old he learned the art of photography through his older brother a tough photographer. After completing his studies in the field Broadcasting at the Institute of Technology MARA (ITM) or now known as Universiti Teknologi MARA (UiTM) in 1990. During his 16 years of work, he has gained a wide range of opportunities and experiences from this field. He has worked as a producer, director, and Editor for Cinematic Sdn. Bhd. in The Documentary section and is involved with the production Documentary, Corporate Video, Video Report, cinematic commercial edit, Sitcom, Movies and many more.

ACHIEVEMENTS

The highlight of his career was when he directed productions in the construction of the PETRONAS Twin Towers by the National Geographic and Discovery Channels such as Mega Structures, Skyscrapers, Tall Buildings, and some related programs. He also directed the documentary the PETRONAS Twin Towers – a Vision Realised is screened at the entrance of the Skybridge Tour, Concourse level, tower Petronas Twin. He was also the director of the documentary Peninsular Gas Utilisation Project

Phase-2 (PGU2 Project) which aired on TV1, Radio Television Malaysia (RTM) on 14 December 1991. He also directed the production video for the construction of several landmarks and mega projects in Malaysia such as Kuala Lumpur International Airport (KLIA), mosques Federal Territory, Pergau Dam, processing and Refining Plant Petronas, Formula One (F1) and PETRONAS MotoGP, All-Asian Satellite Television and Radio Operator (ASTRO), and several more. He has been a lecturer at the Faculty of Creative Writing and film since 2008 and in 2017, he was appointed dean at the Faculty of writing Creative and film and will retire in 2024.