

MOHD RIDZUAN HARUN

BACKGROUND

Bachelor of Arts in language and Linguistics Malay, and holds a Master Of Arts degree from Universiti Putra Malaysia (UPM). He began his career as a cultural officer at the Academy National Arts Council (ASK) which is now known as ASWARA in 2002. He is experienced in taking care of important positions at ASK such as assistant Director of Human Resource Management, researcher of fake Creative Writing and Theater Faculty Coordinator. Since 2007, he has been a member of film with smoothing in modules creative writing. He is active in writing deals and as a result he has written five pieces Poetry collections such as Love published by The Language Hall and Pustaka (DBP) in 2008, the book si Darwis published by the Institute of Education and Book Malaysia (ITBM) in 2012, the state of fireflies published by ITBM on year 2013, Menghening Sun ITbM issue in 2017, and silence is imperfect words get to the best termite Studio on year 2018.

ACHIEVEMENT

In addition, he also wrote children's books such as the Gurindam Collection series Children-themed publications Utusan publications and Distributors Sdn. Bhd. (UP & D) in 2009. It is believed that the name of the Land of the Dead was appointed as the winner of the main prize of the contest to write novels, short stories and Poetry organized by ITBM-PENA-Berita Harian in 2012 for the category of poetry, and English by ITBM in the year 2016 with the title Land of fireflies.