

RUSLAN MOHD IMAM

BACKGROUND

He has been involved in music since elementary school. Aftermath after graduating from high school, he began and lead a number of musical groups that are heavily involved with music on and off stage. As he grew older, he began to change his musical direction by serving with the radio television orchestra Malaysia (RTM) as a bass guitarist in 1980. At RTM, he not only served as an orchestra musician but also here he began to take an interest in science and songwriting until he became the composer of an internal song formost of the songs were on radio and television at that time. In 1990, he was appointed leader of the orchestra RTM and after 15 years of experience in the field and he has since changed his focus to music education.

In the early 2000s, he began working as a National Academy of Arts (ASK) which is now known as ASWARA in the subject Modern theory and musical instruments of the electric Bass guitar. He is now a lawyer and Head of the Composition Program at the Faculty of music ASWARA for the subject of Music Theory as well as to be a presentation supervisor for Diploma and Bachelor's degree studies.